

Valley's Silk Heritage

Talk commemorates National Women's History Month, and the 25th Anniversary of South Bethlehem Historical Society

In 1913 the United States, improbably, became the world's largest producer of silk goods. Pennsylvania was at the heart of this giant industry; and the Lehigh Valley was the heart of its heart.

Silk Mill, Allentown, PA

Speaker: Martha Capwell Fox, Writer and Editor

When: Wednesday, March 17, 2010

Time: 7:00 p.m.

Where: Victory Firehouse, 2nd and Webster Streets in South Bethlehem

Seating is limited, so please plan to arrive early!

For additional information, please call 610-868-3372.